OUR STORY

From humble beginnings in 1990, VAC International has grown into a globally trusted name in dried floral exports. Today, we export 150+ containers annually to over 30 countries, powered by a team of 250+ skilled workers and 50+ core employees. Our scale, reliability, and dedication to natural beauty make us a preferred partner for retailers, designers, and wholesalers around the world.

Our Vision

To become a global leader in the dried flower industry by blending nature's timeless charm with bold innovation in product design and packaging. Through dynamic execution, aesthetic excellence, and sustainable practices, we aim to redefine how dried florals are experienced across the world.
